

Luís Paulo Santos

Assistant Professor

School of Engineering, Department of Informatics, University of Minho

Luis Paulo Santos is an Assistant Professor at the Dept. of Informatics, University of Minho. He is a Senior Researcher of INESC-TEC. His main research interests include, Computer Graphics and Rendering, Visualization, Parallel Processing and Quantum Computing.

He has published his research results in various conference and specialized journals papers. He is the President of the Eurographics Portuguese chapter and has acted in the past as Director of University of Minho's Doctoral Program on Informatics, and as Vice Director of the Dept. of Informatics and the respective undergraduate and Master degrees on Informatics Engineering.

He has been an invited maître de conferences at the University of Rennes I, France, and invited researcher at Warwick Manufacturing Group, Warwick University, UK and at the Texas Advanced Computing Center, UT Austin, TX, USA.